Description

The Channel Island 32 was designed and built specifically to cope with the challenge of boating in and around the Channel Islands.

The number of boats built was a testament to its success and it has been a popular model worldwide.

This one has recently been overhauled with new electrics, navigation equipment, and fuel lines etc. A 2022 survey report is available, proving that this boat has been well maintained throughout, with documents and receipts available.

Much loved by the current owners but their growing family require more space.
